

The Exuberant Trustees
invite you to a panel discussion on the THERAPEUTIC USES OF MUSIC
on Sunday 3rd December 2017, starting at 3 pm.

We hope for a lively discussion about the scope of music therapy,
following short presentations by our speakers :

Vicky Paterson, BA Music (Leeds), MA (Guildhall), Exuberant grantee, now working with Suffolk Music Therapy Services

Andy Stevens, MA, Music Therapist
at John Radcliffe Hospital, with Rosie's Rainbow and Thomas's Fund, and in a special school referral unit.

Steve Pratley, Exuberant Trustee
co-founder of Soundabout and Flash of Splendour Arts, using music as a tool of communication for children and young people with disabilities.

The Pavilion at The Limes, 87 High Street, Standlake, OX29 7RH

The Limes driveway is right next door to the car park of the Black Horse pub.

Gift Aid envelopes will be provided to encourage generous donations to the Exuberant Trust's small grants programme.

Alternatively you can donate to the Trust online, any time.
